

Birth may be a matter of a moment.
But it is a unique one.
(American Proverb)

Dear parents
and parents-to-be,

birth is an event that changes the life of a family in an incomparable way. Birth also means taking the full lifelong responsibility for a child as a parental task. It is our goal to adapt you as parents and your newborn child in harmony to the changing situation before, during and after the birth.

The team of the obstetrical ward of the St. Elisabeth Hospital Heidelberg would like to help you during this important in your life. We will accompany and assist you with all our experience, care and advice.

We believe that it is important to offer all-embracing, family-oriented assistance in birth care so that you can leave the hospital with the highest amount of safety and knowledge to face the challenges of the new situation at home.

We constantly improve our methods of modern, tender and self-determined birth care as well as new methods of newborn care. It is our self-defined aim to do everything within our possibilities to accompany you and provide you with individual care during the time of your stay in our hospital.
